

Myanmar-China Border Trade Under MNDAAC Control

The Myanmar National Democratic Alliance Army (MNDAAC) now controls most of the key Myanmar–China trade routes, border gates, and economic hubs. In northern Shan State, control of the Myanmar–China border is effectively shared between the MNDAAC and the United Wa State Army (UWSA). That has made the MNDAAC the most crucial armed actor in the conflict economy of northern Shan State.

Data as of April 28, 2026, is part of research conducted by ISP-Myanmar's China Studies and Conflict, Peace and Security Studies. It may vary from other sources due to differences in methodology and data availability.