

■ Borders Areas Controlled by Resistance

ISP Mapping Number 82

ISP Myanmar

Following Operation 1027, the territorial dynamics along Myanmar's borders have significantly shifted. Ethnic Armed Organizations (EOs) and resistance groups have effectively expanded their control, overseeing 91 towns along the periphery.

The data presented here is based on ISP-Myanmar's research as of January 16, 2025. Actual data may vary due to the limitations of data access and potential variations in the methodology employed in the research. (*) Resistance-controlled territory refers to areas where there are no SAC military camps and administration operating. Each EOs, and PDFs' active and ruled areas are not described in this map.
